Piers blasts Anthea over rule-break

PIERS Morgan has slammed Anthea Turner following her lockdown "pamper party" rule-break. The Good Morning Britain host, 55, ranted about the TV presenter, 60, during yesterday's show, berating her for hosting a gathering at her London home on February 12, hours after posting a tweet about mask-wearing.

Piers said of her tweet: "What we could see less of is Anthea Turner – she suddenly pops up last week attacking overweight people and attacked a caricature of someone in a mobility scooter. "Saying you've got to look after your body and if you don't it's you who is causing the problem with the NHS because you're fat. "Then it turned out that literally the same day or the day after she was caught with five of her mates coming round for a spa day at her house with beauty treatments."

Facebook giving news back to Oz

FACEBOOK has said it will restore news content to its users in Australia.

The tech giant blocked news to Aussies on its platform last Thursday amid a dispute over a proposed law which would force it to pay news publishers for content.

Australian Treasurer Josh Frydenberg said Facebook chief Mark Zuckerberg had told him the ban would end "in the coming days", after the pair had talks.

The government has been debating the law – seen as a possible test case for regulation globally.

OFFICIAL: RUSSIANS DID ORDER JFK KILLING

LEE Harvey Oswald was instructed to kill John F. Kennedy by Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev and went ahead with the plan despite the Soviets changing their mind, it's claimed.

Robert James Woolsey, who ran the CIA from 1993-1995, makes the claim in a new book, Operation Dragon.

KILLER: Oswald

SOVIET: Khrushchev

Written with Lt Gen Ion Mihai Pacepa, a former chief of Romania's Commie dictator Nicolae Ceausescu's espionage service, the book claims that Oswald, who defected to Russia in 1959 and moved back to the U.S in 1961, was a KGB stooge on a mission from Moscow.

Woolsey, 79, and Pacepa, who died of COVID-19 on February 14, aged 92, base their claim on a new interpretation of already-published material. They cite the 26-volume Warren Commission Report, published in 1964.

Woolsey and Pacepa in their book say much of the report was "codified" so that no-one understood its significance until now.

"Decoded, these pieces of evidence prove that John F. Kennedy's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, had a clandestine meeting in Mexico City with his Soviet case officer, Comrade Kostin, who...belongs to the KGB's Thirteenth Department for assassinations abroad," they claim.

Woolsey and defector Pacepa believe Oswald was recruited in 1957 when he was a U.S. Marine, serving in Japan.

The authors believe he worked for the Soviets for several years, including providing the information that allowed them to shoot down American pilot Gary Powers in 1960, before being given his mission to kill Kennedy. Woolsey and Pacepa write that, between that June and April 1963, the Soviets changed their minds.

ASSASSINATED: JFK

They called Oswald off, but he was now intent on seeing it through.

Under-25s hit most by jump in jobless rate

BRITAIN'S jobless rate has surged to its highest level for nearly five years with the pandemic hitting young workers hardest, but official figures revealed "early signs" of a stabilising jobs market.

The Office for National Statistics said that the rate of unemployment hit 5.1 per cent between October and December – up from 5 per cent in the previous quarter and its highest since early 2016.

It also revealed that there were 726,000 fewer workers on payrolls last month than before the start of the coronavirus crisis.

Nearly 60 per cent of that drop – 425,000 – were for those aged under 25 in a sign of the toll taken by the crisis on young workers.

Chancellor Rishi Sunak pledged to set out his job support plans in next week's Budget, adding: "I know how incredibly tough the past year has been for everyone, and every job lost is a personal tragedy."

Corona deaths fall by quarter

THE number of deaths involving COVID-19 registered each week in England and Wales has dropped by nearly a quarter, new figures show.

A total of 5,691 deaths were registered in the week ending February 12, according to the Office for National Statistics.

This is down 22 per cent from 7,320 deaths in the previous week, and is the lowest figure since the week to January 1.

Figures for the whole of the UK confirm COVID-19 deaths during the current wave of the virus peaked on January 19, with 1,447 deaths.

During the first wave of the virus, the daily death toll peaked at the slightly higher number of 1,457 on April 8, 2020.

Benefit claims in virus spurt

MORE than a third of claims made since Universal Credit was introduced have been made during the coronavirus pandemic, figures show.

There were 4.5m claims for the benefit between March 13, 2020 and January 14 this year, according to the Department for Work and Pensions.

This represents 39 per cent of the 11.4m claims made since Universal Credit was introduced in 2013. The total number of people on UC is 6m.

IT'S UP TO YOU NOW!

Hancock warns that COVID-19 roadmap is in public's hands

EVERYBODY has to "play their part" to meet the dates for the lockdown in England to be eased, Health Secretary Matt Hancock has warned.

It comes after Boris Johnson outlined his four-step strategy that could see restrictions lifted by June 21 – if strict conditions are met.

The Prime Minister said his plan – with its sequence of date targets – offers the best chance to avoid another lockdown.

Mr Hancock said it is "vital" that "everybody plays their part" to make sure "that we hit these dates and get out of this as soon as we possibly can, safely".

It is too early to say what will happen about social distancing he said, adding that he wanted to get the country to a position where it was a "matter of personal responsibility and social norms".

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

That could see people choose to wear masks on public transport without it being made law.

Review

There will be a review of when the two metre rule would be relaxed, and people should be able to hug friends and family from May 17, when the most vulnerable groups have had two vaccine jabs, he added.

Mr Hancock said eradicating COVID-19 will not be possible and that everyone would have to "learn to live with it", as we do with flu.

There is already evidence the vaccines were working, with the number of deaths "coming down really sharply", he added.

In the first step of the prime minister's roadmap, all pupils in England's schools are expected to return to class from March 8, with mass testing and wider use of face masks in secondary schools.

There will be a further easing on March 29, with groups of up to six people or two households allowed to gather in parks and gardens.

Shops, hairdressers, gyms and outdoor hospitality, as well as self-contained holiday accommodation, could reopen on April 12, and a review of international leisure travel restrictions could also be announced.

From May 17, two households or a group of six may be able to meet indoors in a pub or other hospitality venue such as restaurants.

Cinemas, museums, hotels, performances and sporting events will also reopen, with up to 30 people able to attend weddings, receptions, funerals and wakes.

The final step from June 21 will potentially see all legal limits on social contact removed, with the final closed sectors of the economy reopened, such as nightclubs.

...AND THEY'RE OFF!

Holiday firms report 500% surge in bookings

TRAVEL firms say there has been a surge in overseas holiday bookings following the Prime Minister's announcement of the roadmap out of lockdown.

Despite question marks over the return of international travel, the UK's biggest holiday operator, Tui, said that bookings jumped 500 per cent overnight after Boris Johnson spoke.

The government said a decision on easing international travel would not happen until mid-May at the earliest.

But Tui said its bookings for July onwards had soared, with Greece, Spain and Turkey the most popular.

The PM announced in the Commons on Monday that a global travel task force would put forward a report by April 12 on how to return to international travel. The government would then make a decision on removing restrictions but not before May 17 at the earliest.

As the government has said dates could move for the start of international travel, Tui has said that anyone due to travel between May 17 and the end of June can change their booking to a later date without a fee.

Andrew Flintham, managing director for Tui UK and Ireland, described the government's steps as "positive".

THE BIG APPLE BUM FLASHER

If you can make it there, you can make it anywhere...

Just like Ol' Blue Eyes sang, gorgeous Anastasia Fields is well on her way to making a big splash in the Big Apple.

And it's all because of her amazing BUM!

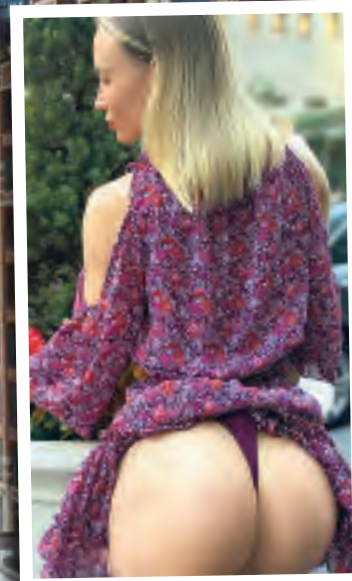

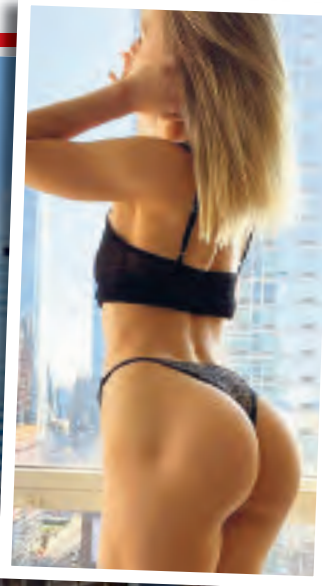

Times Square. The Met. Central Park. Dumbo. Hudson Yards. The Brooklyn Bridge.

These are all places Anastasia has flashed her lovely butt.

Bodacious

On her Instagram account, @Vegilates, you'll see Anastasia pulling up her dresses to show off her bodacious behind at classic locations across NYC and further afield.

In December, the bootylicious social media star, who has 1.4 million followers, went viral by baring her rump in a photo with NYPD officers.

By GRACE HOOPER

The Russian-born 32-year-old said: "The butt-flashing thing is just a strategy to attract a lot of followers. I know exactly what people want to see – I'm in the entertainment business."

Making money by taking pictures of her money maker – all while living in the United States – is something a young Anastasia could have never imagined after growing up in a tough coal-mining town in Siberia.

In 2018, Anastasia started her Instagram account and an OnlyFans page – wanting to post about her vegan diet and her pilates habit (hence the name Vegilates).

But, not feeling like an expert on either subject, "I started just taking sexy pictures in lingerie or whatever", she remembered.

MAX SEX LEFT ME KNACKERED!

EASTENDERS star Jake Wood played Max Branning for 15 years – so it's no surprise that he's "knackered" from his character's sex life.

Max's last scenes on Albert Square aired last week, leaving viewers sad at having to wave farewell to the much-loved and controversial car salesman.

Over the years, Max had been at the centre of some of the BBC One soap's biggest storylines – including his affair with Stacey (Lacey Turner) and the death of his daughter, Abi.

However, it was Max's spicy love life that he'll likely be remembered for the most.

During Max's appearance on Good Morning Britain, host Susanna Reid pointed out: "One of our notes is Max has bedded 15 women."

"He averaged a woman a year in that 15 years. You do need a lie-down on his own."

Jake (left) laughed and admitted: "It's mad isn't it, because I've been with my wife Alison for 16 years this year, so I couldn't be more different than Max."

"I think he is a great character, I've enjoyed and loved playing the character."

He added: "But when you were reading out that list of all the things he's done, I was feeling a bit knackered."

But Jake joked: "I think the most stressful thing he's ever done is share a hot tub with Ian Beale!"

As his final episode aired, Jake shared a heartfelt tribute to his character and wrote in an Instagram post: "Thanks for everything @bbceastenders."

"What an incredible 15 years it's been. I'll miss the show a lot but I'm looking forward to new challenges and new adventures."

"Thank you to everyone for all your love and support."

Stop social media trolls hiding away

SOCIAL media trolls should not be allowed to post from anonymous accounts.

That's the view of the Victims' Commissioner for England and Wales amid concern the practice allows people to abuse others online with little prospect of being identified and prosecuted.

Dame Vera Baird QC said tech giants like Twitter and Facebook should not allow people to sign up without providing accurate identifiable information.

It comes as the late fundraiser captain Sir Tom Moore, England footballer and poverty campaigner Marcus Rashford and former Little Mix singer Jesy Nelson (above) were among those to have been abused repeatedly on social media.

Dame Vera said: "People sit at home with a funny name and say the most horrible thing, having quite a lot of pleasure because they can't be found."

"It's very unpleasant indeed and it's imperative they be brought to justice."

The assault happened in a bedroom.

Bowes-Lyon, who is the son of a cousin of the Queen, was sentenced at Dundee Sheriff Court on Tuesday.

In a statement outside court after pleading guilty last month, Bowes-Lyon apologised and said he was "greatly ashamed of my actions which have caused such distress to a guest in my home".

He said he had "drunk to excess" on the night of the attack, which he said was "no excuse" for his actions.

Telly Tweets wrote on social media: "Think Phil misunderstood when they told him he'd be eating James' sausage."

While Garry Enfield piped up: "Sausage, Phil's favourite."

Aaron Herd said: "You're eating a lot of sausage" – speak for yourself Phil.

And Mark T offered: "It's quite a lot of sausage" – I'm sure you've said that before."

Drunk police cell tossler thought he was at home

AN arrested man lay down on the floor of his police cell and began to perform a sex act because he was drunk, bored and thought he was at home, a court heard.

Prosecutor Ben Worthington told Swindon Magistrates' Court that Peter Szabo, 45, had been arrested on another matter and taken to Gablecross police station.

"He was somewhat unhappy he'd been arrested and he was in his cell. He'd been told to use the toilet because I think he'd tried to pull down his trousers previously," Mr Worthington said.

"He was then on the floor in the cell and he pulled down his trousers and started to play with his penis, which was obviously [caught] on CCTV cameras in his cell."

Mark Glendenning, defending, said: "What he tells me is it's not so much an intention to upset the police officers. He was drunk, bored and he thought he was at home in bed."

Szabo, of Broadgreen, Wilts, pleaded guilty to indecent behaviour in a police station.

Magistrates fined him £100, but deemed it paid by time served in the police cells.

Minority Report playing out in Russia – for real!

A SINISTER Russian experiment which aims to tackle kids BEFORE they "become hooligans" has been blasted as a real-life Minority Report.

Scientific and educational institutions in Siberian city Novosibirsk are using 'psycho-genetics' to identify future troublemakers.

In the 2002 Tom Cruise film Minority Report, future-criminals are arrested BEFORE they have committed a crime.

In the Russian version, six schools are taking part in the project run by the Novosibirsk city's department of education, the Institute of Cytology and Genetics, and the firm VedaGenetics.

The experimental research studies genes influencing levels of aggression, creativity and intellect in students aged from 11 to 17 years old.

Generic results go back to schools, where teachers combine them with earlier psychological tests and decide if a child's behaviour needs to be corrected.

EXPOSED: Glaros was nicked after cops tipped off by Google

A PERVERT smeared his genitals and anus with dog food – then encouraged his pet pooches to lick it off.

Investigators later found illegal photographs and videos in Glaros' cloud storage account.

Two of the videos showed two of Glaros' eight dogs "licking him in a sexual manner", according to an arrest report.

During questioning, detectives said Glaros admitted downloading the photos and videos, as well as "engaging with his dogs", Holly and Boomer.

He confirmed to cops that it was his testicles and anus being licked by the dogs in the videos.

Glaros, of Tamarac, Florida, faces two charges of engaging in sexual contact with animals, 10 counts of possession of child pornography and one charge of compiling child pornography.

The 27-year-old is being held in the Broward County Jail.

The dogs have been placed in the custody of Glaros' grandparents.

A police source said: "In the old days, a pervert like this could never have troubled the dignity of the court."

"A couple of officers would have dealt with him 'with extreme prejudice' and the body dumped in the Everglades for the gators."

"Trouble is, now we got all these Democrat city boys in DC breathing down our necks, we done can't deal with things the old, Southern ways."

IS BLACK MASK FLASHER BACK?

POLICE investigating a spate of indecent exposures have said they may be linked with an incident last summer in which a naked man in a black mask approached two teenage girls in broad daylight.

Four incidents have been reported in Kirkcaldy's Greenloanings area, including one last week when a man in a balaclava exposed himself to two women.

Officers are now examining the possibility that the culprit could be the same man who was filmed (right) at the nearby Rabbit Braes beauty spot on June 24 last year wearing nothing but a pair of shoes and a black mask.

Detective Inspector Christopher Dow of Glenrothes Police Station, who is leading the investigation, said: "Despite extensive enquiries into each of these offences, we have not yet been able to trace who is responsible."

Details of the find were sent to drug enforcement agencies worldwide amid concerns that coke-coated cornflakes could be smugglers' latest ruse to evade controls.

Drinking snake blood 'can spark next pandemic'

SOLDIERS who drink snake blood and eat live geckos and scorpions risk catching infectious coronavirus-type diseases and even causing a new pandemic, campaigners have warned.

Thousands of troops from around the world take part each year in Cobra Gold joint military exercises in Thailand, where they are encouraged to kill and eat live creatures for "survival" drills, according to animal rights group Peta.

American soldiers have been filmed eating live geckos, drinking blood from a decapitated snake and biting into lizards and scorpions.

Peta has written to the defence secretary, Ben Wallace, urging him to call on the organisers to drop the live animal exercises. "Shipping military personnel to Thailand to drink the blood of beheaded snakes is the kind of absurdity that could spark the next pandemic," says Peta's science policy manager Julia Baines.

Lockdown money is going on... DILDOS!

Britons have evidently developed expensive tastes in the bedroom, with sales of adult toys priced £100 or more up 160% between November and mid-February.

Ann Summers said the dramatic increase was the result of people wishing to be discreet while living and working with flatmates, or grown-up children who have had to move back in with their parents during lockdown.

MUM BULLIED OVER X-RATED ONLINE PICS

RED HOT: Tiffany's sexy snaps outraged parents

A MUM who sells sexy snaps online has been shamed by fellow parents at her kids' school.

Tiffany Poindexter makes more than £100,000 a month selling X-rated content – taken by her husband – to the subscription-based app OnlyFans.

But the 44-year-old mother-of-three claims that after some parents found out about her account last year, they began a petition to have her kids kicked out of their school in California.

"Some women from my area printed out pictures I posted on my OnlyFans and mailed them to the principal of my children's school," she said.

"We were called a load of names. Apparently, it was 'disturbing, disgusting, horrifying' and 'my children should be kicked out!'"

Jealousy

The mum, known as "Mrs Poindexter" on the app, said despite the backlash, the couple have continued with the account, branding the campaign as a sign of "jealousy".

And her three boys – aged eight, 10 and 12 – still attend the school.

Chris described the account as "pretty tame".

He said: "I think they have this misconception she must be making sex tapes, but there's nothing like that."

Many have taken to social media to defend the mum, saying there is "nothing wrong with her hustle".

"From where I come, this is called envy," another added.

A man, later identified as 61-year-old Harold Rannels, then forced his way inside the house.

Rannels pulled out a large knife and began attacking Lois.

Parrish said he feared for the couple's lives, so he grabbed a shotgun hanging on his wall and twatted the man until he was unconscious.

Rannels was taken to hospital, where he later died from his injuries.

NOW MUPPETS ARE 'OFFENSIVE'

EVEN the Muppets are "offensive" these days.

Anyone who streams The Muppet Show on Disney+ will see a disclaimer first – warning of "offensive content".

Disney released five seasons of the iconic show for streaming on Friday, allowing viewers to enjoy watching Kermit the Frog, Miss Piggy, Fozzie Bear and their celebrity guests.

The disclaimer warns the show has "stereotypes" and "mistreatment of people or cultures".

"This program includes negative depictions and/or mistreatment of people or cultures. These stereotypes were wrong then and are wrong now," the disclaimer states.

"Rather than remove this content, we want to acknowledge its harmful impact, learn from it and spark conversation to create a more inclusive future together," the disclaimer says.

Which is why proper blokes across the land were pulling the ruddy end off following Bev Callard's latest foray onto social media.

The actress, who played Liz McDonald in Corrie, stripped to a pair of sexy hold-up stockings for a red-hot Valentine's date night with her husband.

By SIMON DEANsimon@sundaysport.co.uk

Bev, 63, has been married to Jon McEwan since 2010 and decided to spice things up in some sexy attire.

And she didn't hold back on sharing what the pair got up to in the comfort of their swanky home pub on Instagram.

Jon, dubbed "megashag" during Bev's stint on I'm A Celebrity last year, must have enjoyed her choice of outfit, as she captioned the post: "Date night going well!"

Bev's not the only one who lights fires in fellas' kecks in the saucy attire.

To prove our point, here's five pages of topless babes in hold-up stockings...

SPARKY TURNED COP KILLER

SHOT IN HEAD:
Killer's
first victim
PC David
Haigh

ELECTRICIAN and self-styled survivalist Barry Prudom's reign of terror began on June 17, 1982, when PC David Haigh was delivering a summons to a poacher in North Yorkshire's Washburn Valley.

When he didn't return, his colleague and friend Mick Clipston went in search of him.

Clipston found the police car with its doors open and David Haigh dead beside it. He had been shot in the forehead.

It was the beginning of one of the biggest armed manhunts in British police history – one that would last 17 days.

Having cleared the poacher of suspicion,

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

police were left with a murder but no apparent motive – and almost no evidence. Written on a clipboard found under PC Haigh's body was a date of birth, a name and a car registration number.

Escaping

But the name was false and the car was found abandoned three days later, 25 miles away.

The trail was cold but the gunman was on the move.

In Lincolnshire, he broke into a house. Then, 20 miles away, on the fifth day of the police hunt, he entered the home of Sylvia and George Luckett, shooting both in the head before escaping in their car.

George died instantly, but his wife crawled next door for help. She survived but was left with permanent brain damage and remembered nothing.

Two days later, up in the Dalby Forest, came dog handler Ken Oliver's encounter with the gunman.

He immediately alerted his police colleagues to the gunman's whereabouts. Among the first to respond was a young Detective Sergeant from Scarborough, Jim Kilmartin.

He remembered finding the burning car the killer had escaped in. They were wary of approaching it.

"The car was only just starting to crackle and burn," said Jim, who would later become head of York police.

"We were only a few minutes behind him."

They tracked the killer with a dog, doubling through the trees.

Eventually, as it was beginning to get dark, they came to a steep defile. The killer could have been lurking in the shadows, watching them.

"I was not prepared to go down there," Jim said.

By dawn the next day, a huge operation had been mounted, involving marksmen, helicopters and 1,000 policemen.

Then at last came a breakthrough.

In a police station in Leeds, PC Martin Hatton was cross-referencing the information on David Haigh's clipboard with police records.

Working from the date of birth on the clipboard, he came across the name of Barry Edwards, wanted for wounding.

The police searched his flat and established his real name was Barry Prudom, 37, a man known to them as a keep-fit fanatic, obsessed with weapons and the military. They also found a manual on survival

DOG-handler PC Ken Oliver will never forget the day he stopped a car during a routine check in the North Yorkshire Moors' picturesque Dalby Forest.

Without realising, he had come face to face with death.

He walked up to the car and asked the man inside to step out. Instead of replying, the driver lifted his hand – with a .22 Beretta 71 pistol in it.

"I knew for a fact he was going for my head," said Ken, who has since retired.

"He shot me across the nose. The young dog came out then. He shot him, too which just gave me enough time to start to run."

Ken survived seven gunshot wounds during his getaway. His police dog, which had been shot twice, also pulled through.

He ran to a nearby holiday cottage where two little girls were playing with their grandfather.

Ken recalled: "I just had to get the kids out of the way. I thought, if he took me out, he would take the kids out as well."

But the killer hadn't followed him.

Instead, he had driven deep into the forest, where his car was later found burnt out.

It was the seventh day of the hunt for a man who, up until then, had no face and no name.

techniques written by Eddie McGee, a former paratrooper and an experienced tracker. Prudom had attended one of his courses.

The confirmation that Prudom was their man came when Ken Oliver identified him from a photograph.

After 10 days, The Phantom of the Forest had a name.

But he had vanished. Then, on the 12th day

TAKING NO CHANCES:
Cops tooled up heavily to track down lethal Prudom largest arsenal of weapons ever issued to a British police force and threw a cordon round Malton, sealing off the town.

The Siege of Malton had begun. But still there was no sign of the killer.

Prudom was lying low – until July 3 when, driven by hunger, he walked into the home of Maurice Johnson.

For 11 hours, Prudom held the Johnsons and their son Brian hostage and, as the hours passed, struck up a strange relationship with them, even sharing a meal he called “the last supper”.

Promise

In a TV interview, Brian recalled: “As the night went on, we got talking as though we had known each other for years. He was calling me Brian and my father he was calling Dad.”

Eventually, at 3.15am, Prudom left, leaving Brian with a present – a U.S. paratroopers’ ring. “He said, ‘Promise me that you will wear it’, and I said, ‘Yes, I will’.”

After he had left, Brian’s father called the police. Once more, Jim Kilmartin was on the killer’s trail.

Together, he and tracker Eddie McGee, who had taught Prudom all his survival skills, followed the killer’s trail through the early morning dew.

It took them to the back of a nearby tennis club, where some pine fencing was lying against a wall behind thick undergrowth. It was Prudom’s hideout.

A firearms squad from Greater Manchester, led by Chief Insp David Clarkson, was called in.

Clarkson, desperate to make sure it was Prudom, climbed the wall behind the hideout and tried to prise the top open. It was too heavy.

Then he tried talking to the man they believed was holed up inside. There was no response. Suddenly, a gunshot rang out.

Clarkson, believing Prudom was firing on his officers, ordered them to open fire.

When the police eventually opened the hideout, Prudom was dead.

Terror

But the final irony was yet to be revealed. A post-mortem into the killer’s death revealed the truth.

The single shot that Clarkson had heard had not been aimed at police at all.

Triple killer Barry Prudom had just shot himself – becoming the last victim of his reign of terror.

GO TO JAIL!

Monopoly is RACIST, claims writer

WE can’t play Monopoly any more – because it’s RACIST!

That’s the claim by an author who says the original Monopoly board game was inspired by segregated Atlantic City in the 1930s, with property prices reflecting deep racial disparities between white and black residents.

Mary Pilon, who wrote her book The Monopolists about the hidden history of the beloved board game, argues that its property values ‘reflect a legacy of racism and inequality’.

Monopoly, produced and sold around the world by Hasbro, was derived from a game Lizzie Magie patented in the US in 1904.

Bitter

It quickly spread across the country and was adapted into several different versions.

Pilon claims today’s most common American version of the game was created in the 1930s by estate agent Jesse Raiford, who modelled his board on his home town of Atlantic City.

“Raiford affixed prices to the properties on his board to reflect the actual real-estate hierarchy at the time,” Pilon says.

“And in Atlantic City, as in so much of the rest of the United States, that hierarchy reflects a bitter legacy of racism and residential segregation.”

Pilon explained that Raiford lived on Ventnor Avenue in Atlantic City, while his friends the Joneses and the Harveys lived on Park Place and Pennsylvania Avenue.

Those streets – where black people were not allowed to live – made up the priciest spots on his board.

The cheapest spots on the board matched streets in low income black neighbourhoods, Pilon says.

For example, Baltic Avenue, worth just $60 on the board, was the street where the Harveys’ black maid, Clara Watson, lived.

Nuns busted for flouting lockdown

TWO Irish nuns were busted for violating pandemic restrictions to attend an exorcism.

Sister Irene Gibson and Sister Anne Marie travelled 135 miles from Cork to Dublin to expunge supposed evil spirits of the President of Ireland and top lawmakers.

But lockdown measures ban people from travelling more than five kilometres from their home.

The deliverance of the Dáil Éireann was followed by an outdoor mass attended by 70 people. Under Ireland’s lockdown rules, no more than 15 people were permitted to assemble outdoors.

Jeep drives into Cherokee attack

RED Indians are on the warpath over the Jeep Cherokee.

The leader of Oklahoma’s Cherokee Nation wants Jeep to stop using the tribe’s name on its SUVs.

Car and Driver magazine questioned whether the branding was appropriate in the context of a nationwide rethinking of racial and social justice issues.

Chuck Hoskin Jr., chief of the Cherokee Nation, said: “I’m sure this comes from a place that is well-intended, but it does not honour us by having our name plastered on the side of a car.”

camilla QUANCE

CURVY Camilla Quance's ideal weekend would be landing herself in jail...to have a red-hot LESBIAN ORGY!

The 32EE beauty said she enjoys drinking from the furry cup and classes herself as BISEXUAL.

Camilla, from Penzance, Cornwall, said: "I do have a recurring dream where I've been sent to a women-only prison.

"At one point, I'm folding sheets in the laundry room when five or six inmates come in and seduce me!

Soaking

"I end up doing 69ers with every one of them.

"I always wake up soaking wet after that dream, so I suppose that might be a nice one to try - although I don't fancy being locked up in jail!

"I really love having sex with men and women, but I definitely fancy girls as women can be far more sensual than men and know exactly where to touch to make me climax.

"More than anything, I love feeling another pair of big breasts pressing up against my body."

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

CHANCES are you know at least one person who's either in the armed forces, been in them in the past, or is related to someone who has.

If you happen to get a socially-distanced chance, ask them how appalled they are at the Queen's decision to withdraw the honorary military titles she once bestowed upon Prince Harry.

Will they give a toss that Harry isn't one of their commanders-in-chief any longer?

My guess is – not in the slightest.

Why go to Mars when we could do something useful?

ARE you one of the growing number of people who keep biting their lip when the latest mission to Mars pops up on the telly?

Not because you're so captivated by it all – the 300 million-mile journey, the inch-perfect landing, the search for little green men.

But because of the sheer, unrelenting, boringness of it all.

I mean, after all, who really cares?

The fascination for what lies beyond the atmosphere seems unrelenting – and I reckon there's one reason for that.

Exotic

People can look to the stars and imagine.

Whereas looking at the streets around them, it's not quite so fantastic.

Up, above we can imagine spaceships and exotic lands.

Yet down here we see streets cluttered up by wheelie bins, Friday night sick puddles (still somehow around, even though the pubs are shut) and plastic bag debris.

We can't cure cancer but we can bet the entire country's finances and future on a vaccination that might work now but might not in the future.

The cold – another coronavirus that has so many "variants" we now

WASTE OF TIME AND MONEY:
The Mars rover

call it not "Covid" but "common" – is another conundrum we've yet to conquer.

Yet the amount of cash chucked at sending yet another piece of expensive space junk to another planet seemingly eclipses the need to stop us all snivelling every winter.

Although, to be fair, we'd then have to bail out Beechams, Kleenex and the manufacturers of Sudafed.

So, instead of doing something sensible and useful, that would make a real difference to the lives we live today rather than the lives we might live in a far away tomorrow, we'll keep spaffing billions on the search for microbes on the Red Planet.

LABOUR leader Keir Starmer had his latest relaunch event last week.

It was sold in advance to journos as his Beveridge Report moment – that black and white time when the welfare state was invented in the 40s.

Instead it was more like watching a mid-sized cargo ship get launched into a river, splash into the water, and then instantly sink.

Starmer has all the charisma of a lime left too long in the fruit bowl.

Tough exterior, drying innards, still slightly sour on the tongue – but lacking any real zing.

Naked knifeman told cops to shoot him in hotel room

COPS used Tasers after a naked nut went berserk in a hotel room at the Plaza Resort in Daytona Beach, Florida.

In video posted to Facebook by police, the nude suspect threw knives, a rubbish bin and other items at officers as they tried to get him to surrender.

Police responded with several Taser blasts and pepper spray, which had little effect on the suspect.

He was sitting in a chair with a knife in his hand, telling officers to shoot him.

After a hostage negotiator talked to the man for about an hour, officers rushed the room and placed the man in handcuffs.

The suspect, identified as 22-year-old Steven Fuller, of Pennsylvania, said he called police to the hotel.

He said he wanted to kill them, since his world was ending.

Fuller (above) is facing six counts of aggravated assault upon a law enforcement officer.

Relieved bomb squad end up stroking pussy

A BOMB squad rushed to investigate a suspicious bag left outside a church – only to find six newborn kittens and their mother.

"There was a mom cat and her six one-day-old babies in a bag," the Butler County Sheriff's Office, Ohio, said in a Facebook post.

"There was a note left stating 'Sprinkles' went into labour yesterday," the post added.

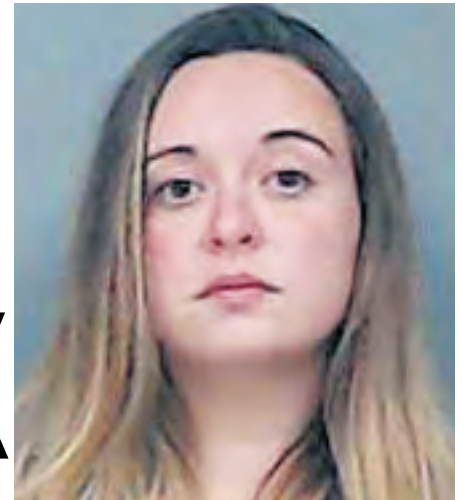

Both mum and kittens were moved to the Animal Friends Shelter, where they were bathed and cared for by the staff.

"Sprinkles, purring throughout it all, received her vaccines and blood test and appears to be in good health," the shelter reported.

"She's doing a fantastic job nursing and caring for her babies, and all 7 will be placed with their foster family."

THERAPIST WAS CRAZY FOR TROUBLED TEEN'S COCK

SEXUAL ABUSE CHARGE: Danielle Hook had boy's child

Counsellor pregnant after repeated romps

A THERAPIST at a facility for troubled teens told a randy lad she was "crazy" for his cock and begged for his "hot come".

And Danielle Hook certainly got it, because she ended up having the 14-year-old lad's baby. Hook, 30, was arrested in July 2020 and charged with sexual abuse, sexual exploitation by a counsellor and harbouring a runaway.

She is expected to plead guilty when she appears in court in March.

Hook, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, had submitted a written guilty plea to charges of third-degree sexual abuse and sexual exploitation by a counsellor or therapist. It was rejected due to incorrect and incomplete information on the document.

Wet

An investigation by the Iowa Department of Human Services and juvenile court officials discovered an alleged improper sexual relationship between Hook and a 14-year-old boy who lived at a Four Oaks facility where she was employed as a youth counsellor.

The exploitation took place between 1 July 2017 and 30 November 2018, according to Linn County Attorneys.

Examination of Hook's and the boy's mobile phones found thousands of messages between the pair.

On one, Hook says she's "crazy" for the lad's "huge, hard cock".

In another, she talks about wanting the boy's "steaming hot come in my mouth, in my wet pussy and in my tight ass".

In yet another she writes: "I've got three fingers in my c*t right now, thinking about it being your hot dick."

Hook was fired from her employment but was later discovered to allegedly be living with the boy in Marion, Iowa, while he was on the run from juvenile court officials.

Prosecutors said Hook gave birth to a child, which was connected by a DNA test to her sexual abuse of the boy.

Stormy loses latest Trump tussle

BLOWN AWAY: Supreme Court has kicked out babe's claims against Trump

AMERICA'S Supreme Court has rejected an appeal from porn star Stormy Daniels, who accused former President Donald Trump of defaming her. The actress has claimed she had a tryst with Trump in 2006 and in 2016 agreed to a $130,000 confidentiality agreement, which became public in 2018.

Trump has publicly denied her allegations of an affair.

Daniels, whose real name is Stephanie Clifford, sued Trump for defamation after he ridiculed a sketch of a man she said threatened her in 2011 over her claims about Trump.

Trump tweeted: "A sketch years later about a non-existent man. A total con job, playing the Fake News Media for Fools (but they know it!)"

The actress was shot down by lower courts before appealing to the Supreme Court.

HOTEL 'SORRY' ABOUT SEE-THROUGH SAUNA

THE operators of a hotel have apologised to guests after a honeymoon couple discovered that the windows of its sauna facilities – which were advertised as having mirrored, one-way glass – gave a clear view to passers-by.

"We deeply apologise for causing inconvenience to customers due to the omission of some glass barrier coatings and the operation of the blinds when using some spaces in the women's sauna," reads a message posted to the website of the Grand Josun Jeju hotel on South Korea's Jeju Island.

The sauna facilities have been closed while corrective actions are "taken immediately".

The see-through sauna was brought to light by a husband who honeymooned at the Jeju property with his new wife.

Sharing his account online, the man claimed they had used the saunas, which included a bathroom and shower, for two days before he later realised he could see into the second-floor facility from outside.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M 22 and have just returned from a year's break in Japan where I was teaching English to students.

For the first six months I was based in Tokyo and got stuck into the nightlife, which is incredible.

I hooked up with another ex-pat and he introduced me to the sex clubs, which were outrageous.

Our regular port of call was called Sex Kittens and inside it was wall-to-wall with cute Japanese girls dressed in college girl uniforms.

For a £10 entrance fee you could feel their tits and arse. For another £10 the girls would give you a blowjob in the club and for £25 you were led to a cubicle for a private dance and a shag.

Every so often the club organised a private party and they were really wild. The entrance fee to these events was £50 but you really got your money's worth.

First off there were about 25 girls wrestling each other nude in a giant paddling pool of noodles with sauce.

Any bloke who was brave enough to get in there was rewarded with blowjobs and, if he could keep hold of them for long enough, a shag.

After that there was a game show-type stage event where the five girls stuck their arse through curtains and blokes took it in turns pocking them up the arse.

Then it was a free-for-all with shagging going on in every corner of the club.

I had a great time, but since returning to England I've not managed to find anything that compares.

I looked on the internet but all the websites I visited were rubbish.

Please help!

Sam says...

GET yourself a job in Tokyo.

Dear Sam,

I WAS clearing out the boxroom at our house the other day when I came across some holiday snaps taken 50 years ago.

One showed my wife-to-be coming out of the sea in a tiny red bikini looking absolutely ravishing.

I showed them to the missus before we went to bed and her reaction was sensational. We had the greatest sex since that time on our hols.

How about that?

GS, Lancs

YOU must have been in 70th heaven.

I've got two women to satisfy my sexual needs

Dear Sam,

I AM a 45-year-old man and have been with my girlfriend for 15 years. I recently started going to the gym to get in shape and got myself a female personal trainer.

I have a good sex life with my girlfriend and she really satisfies me in the bedroom.

I get on well with my trainer and after my workout last week she suggested we have a quick sauna.

Well, she ended up giving me a blowjob. Since then I can't get her out of my head.

When I have a workout with her, we are now really touchy-feely.

I am still having sex with my girlfriend and still enjoy that as well.

What the hell should I do?

RS, email

Sam says...

THANK your lucky stars and carry on enjoying yourself.

Shy office babe had no inhibitions in bedroom

Dear Sam,

A NEW girl has just started at the office where I work.

She's quite shy but has lovely curly red hair and great tits.

I thought I'd try to bring her out of her shell a bit, so I invited her out for a drink after work.

We got on well and I was thrilled when she later agreed to come back to my place.

She soon lost her shyness and was onto me, thrusting her hot tongue in my mouth.

I immediately went for her giant tits and her nipples were like cherry stones as I tweaked them and sucked them.

After a while she grabbed my head and pushed it down between her long legs as she pulled her skirt up to reveal the moist triangle in her panties.

Squealing

I eased them aside and took a deep breath of her musty scent and probed her ginger lips with my tongue.

Within minutes she was squealing in the throes of passion, which ended in a crescendo of orgasm.

She was quite wobbly on her legs after that, so she sank to her knees and took my rock-hard cock between her lips. Her oral was out of this world!

She tore off my clothes and spread her thighs wide so I could slide easily deep into her sopping fanny.

After a few minutes of humping, she flipped me over and eased herself down on my throbbing tool.

She expertly rode me, making me explode in ecstasy.

The only drawback is that now

I think I've fallen in love with her. But she's told me that she can't see me any more because she's getting married soon.

What can I do about it?

AP, Kent

Sam says...

CALM down and get real. You've only seen her once, you great big baby.

Dear Sam,

I HAD to e-mail you to tell you about Sunday – my best day of the week.

I'm married to a wonderful woman who has 38DD breasts. It really turns her on when I fondle and lick her erect nipples and this gets me going too.

She also likes to give me a tit-rub until I climax.

We normally start our games at around 8.30am. First she straddles me and then bends over so that her pendulous mammaries are dangling just above my face.

After a while she guides my rigid rod into her and bounces up and down on it while I reach up and tweak her nipples until they are as stiff as my manhood.

It's only a matter of seconds before she screams out in ecstasy as she reaches her first orgasm.

Eventually I climax too, then I take one of her nipples in my mouth.

I kiss, lick and suck it for ages until she's begging me to enter her – which I do with one almighty thrust.

I ride her like a stallion, kissing each breast in turn as I pump away at her.

But the other day she suddenly announced that she was thinking of having her breasts reduced.

What should I do?

PJ, email

Sam says...

ALL you can do is point out how important they are to you.

Dear Sam,

THERE's a bird in my local pub who everyone fancies. She's a 21-year-old brunette with huge tits.

And she gives blowjobs to anyone who beats her at pool.

The other week, she gave me some photos and said: "They're for your eyes only and wait until you get home to look at them."

I rushed home and couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the snaps.

They were pics of her showing everything.

The next time I saw her she asked if I'd enjoyed the pics. When I said yes, she invited herself to my place.

I suggested we make a porn vid she was all for it.

She started flicking her bean while I filmed her, then she sucked me off.

She gave me a fantastic tit-wank and I exploded all over her face.

She then produced some handcuffs from her bag, tied me to the bed and emptied the contents of my fridge on to me – they were all licked off my knob.

This did nothing for me as I thought it was a terrible waste of food, but she seemed to enjoy it.

We see each other twice a week, but it's costing me a fortune in food.

Should I tell her to cut out the food sex?

VT, Somerset

Sam says...

YOU could but she might tell you to cut out the sex!

Jeweller hunk is a gem of a lover

Dear Sam,

I WENT to a jeweller's with my boyfriend a couple of months ago. He was buying me an engagement ring – but I ended up ditching him for the hunky guy behind the counter.

As soon as I walked in and saw him, my heart skipped a beat. I chose a ring and, as we left, the jeweller pressed a card in my hand.

I rang him later and we arranged to meet that night as my fella was working until midnight.

At the end of the evening he invited me back to his place. I eagerly accepted and when we got inside he grabbed me and gave me a passionate kiss.

I could feel myself getting moist as he slid his hand up my top, resting on my breast.

I felt as if I was about to burst. I undid his trousers and grabbed his manhood, letting it swell in my hand.

Thrusts

He led me to the sofa and I leaned over and took the tip of his cock between my lips.

He was moaning with every lick and slurp and then said he was about to come. So I clambered on to his lap and guided him inside my aching pussy.

A few thrusts later we both came. I stayed for two hours and we made love in loads of positions.

That was the beginning of our affair. Three weeks later I told my boyfriend it was all over between us and my jeweller lover and I now live together.

But my family won't have anything to do with us and it's breaking my heart.

After all, I can't help falling in love. Any advice?

AK, North Yorks

Sam says...

YES – ignore them. I wish you both all the luck in the world.

#MY SEX FANTASY

'If he grabs me

ONE of my favourite things to do in bed is mutual masturbation, as in play with yourself in front of each other – I really find it insanely hot!

When you rub one out without even touching each other, it's quite intimate.

And because you normally only ever wank in private, it's also a bit taboo.

I love solo play with both of you in the same room or bed, and via video call.

Both of you know how to pleasure yourself so there's no pressure to please the other person and you can get yourself super turned-on very quickly.

I do it often but I fantasise about doing it even when I'm not.

Porn

You can talk real dirty, and then there's visually – you can put on a show like something in a porn clip.

It's so horny watching a man jerk off, so rawly masculine.

I love doing it facing each other on a bed or sofa, or being on top.

The exhibitionist in me will rub my clit, finger myself and play with my breasts. I love seeing the guy's face.

You can do mutual masturbation only as the main event or it can be a starter before doing stuff to each other.

I love saying, 'I want to make myself come with this toy while tasting you' as an invitation for him to put his cock in my mouth while I'm wanking.

Or if say 'I wish this vibrator was your cock pumping away in my sopping wet pussy' and he grabs me and f**ks me, then I'm not gonna argue!

#HOT'N'HORNY

KINKY Zoe Fox says the idea of going DOGGING has her frothing at the clopper!

The 30DD glamour model fantasises about having the ride of her life with her bloke in a secluded car park at night while other men watch.

Zoe, from Cardiff, said: "In my fantasy me and my fella turn off the road and end up at a dogging spot by accident."

Frisky

"Things are getting frisky and we're kissing and caressing."

"We're startled when a guy appears and stands watching us, obviously turned on."

"We decide to put on a performance. More men appear and I'm loving being the star of my own amateur sex show."

"I tease them with a little flash of flesh, before revealing more of my naked body and going all the way with my man!"

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stun-nas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you are clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

Just drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

ANISSA KATE

DRIVER Mike Sutcliffe is constantly bowled over by the sexiness of Anissa Kate.

Mike, 49, from Plymouth, says Bristol babe Anissa gets him all in a tizz and he can't think straight when he catches a glimpse of her 36Ds.

Well-horny Mike said: "Anissa is a thing of real beauty. I regularly flick through the Sport before I get down to work and whenever I catch a glimpse of her it sends me all to pieces."

RACHEL TER HORST

MARVELOUS Rachel ter Horst would be the perfect catch for fisherman Wayne Campbell.

Wayne, 32, from the Isle of Man, regularly casts his net in the Irish Sea – but it's veteran Dutch stunna Rachel who he really wants.

The beauty boasts perfect 36D whoppers and Wayne is well and truly hooked on her.

He drooled: "Rachel is the hottest girl I've ever seen."

"I wouldn't mind her riding my waves, if you know what I mean!"

RUTH HIGHAM

TATTOOIST Ian Bentley can't get enough of his ideal girl, lingerie lovely Ruth Higham.

The 52-year-old tattoo artist, from Chester, loves girls in sexy underwear and says Bolton beauty Ruth is a real stunna.

Ian said: "Girls in silky undies really get me going and Ruth is unbelievably sexy."

"I'd love to get her in a shop and help her try on some new things."

"Plus, I might have the chance to cop a feel of her 35DD norks!"

GORGEOUS Preeti Young knows what she wants in the bedroom – and she's not afraid to demand it from a fella!

The 32FF cracker, from Lambeth, south London, said: "My thing is being ultra bossy in the bedroom – I just love to take full control."

"I'm no stranger to spanking, whips, butt plugs and strap-ons, and I love a little domination."

Stockings

"I have an obsession with dressing up too – leather bodices, fishnet body stockings... you name it, I've got it!"

The brunette beauty added: "My man can be any type of submissive – a naughty boy who needs to be punished, an obedient slave, or just a guy who will give in to me and all my demands."

Some women are too often told they need to be submissive.

"Well, I don't wait to be given 'permission' for sex – I take what I want, when I want it!"

LOOKING DOWN: Bruce

Bruce safe as Toon get set for the drop

By JOHN ANTHONY

STEVE Bruce is NOT facing the sack as Newcastle manager.

The Toon have been dragged right into a relegation battle after losing eight of their ten Premier League games in 2021.

Having been miles clear of the drop zone at Christmas, Newcastle are now just three points above a resurgent Fulham in the final relegation place.

Despite that, insiders say Toon owner Mike Ashley does not want a new man in the hotseat.

Bruce is trying to put a brave face on things after the Toon's 3-1 weekend defeat at Old Trafford.

He realises his team are in trouble but believes they have enough to stay in the division.

Bruce said: "There are six or seven teams in and around it with 13 games to go.

"I'm sure there's a few looking over their shoulder, and, of course, we're one.

"I'm still quietly confident we'll be fine if we keep performing like we did for the first hour against Manchester United.

"It was always going to be difficult going to Chelsea away and then Man United away. I've been pleased with certain aspects of us."

Bruce says he can understand why the fans have been giving him lots of stick.

He added: "Of course, they don't want to see their team at the wrong end of the table.

I understand that totally. The one thing we've got is a unique fanbase which makes us the club we've got. Of course, they're anxious.

"As I've said I'm quietly confident, if we keep performing like that for the first hour in particular, I'm still confident that we'll be fine."

Bruce does realise that it will be tough if Joelinton is set for a spell on the sidelines.

The Brazilian was recalled at Old Trafford and was having an impact before going off injured just after half-time.

No.1 striker Callum Wilson is out too which leaves him with only Dwight Gayle to lead the line.

Bruce said: "The big turning point for me was the loss of big Joe.

"We were already without our main centre-forward, so we hope he's not too serious."

TOP TEAM: Rice and Lingard have driven West Ham into the top four showdown

HAMMERS UP FOUR EUROPE

Rice: Champions League in our sights

DECLAN Rice says the West Ham players believe they can qualify for next season's Champions League.

By PAUL THOMAS

The midfielder has been a big part of the club's success so far this season.

The Hammers currently sit proudly in fourth place after their London derby win against Tottenham.

They have won six of their past eight Premier League games to put themselves right in contention.

Rice believes the next month will determine whether they make it into Europe.

They are playing Man City, Leeds, Man United and Arsenal before the end of March.

Rice said of finishing in the top four: "I think I would be wrong to sit here and say that's not something that I am thinking about.

"This club, this is where it deserves to be, it's a massive club. We have got quality and that's where we need to be pushing.

"I think the next four games for us are going to define that. We have got City, then Leeds, then United and then Arsenal. They're four massive games.

"If we get through those with a good amount of points, who knows. We will be down to single figures of games to play then and we will be able to start counting down to see how much longer we've got to go."

Rice has long been a target for other clubs with Chelsea and Man United thought to be interested.

But he's happy with the standard of player he is lining up alongside this season.

The 22-year-old added: "I can say first hand probably this is the best West Ham team that I have been apart of in the four years that I have been in the team.

Revelation

"The mentality has just changed completely and I think you can see that on the pitch. We are fighting for each other."

Rice has been joined in midfield by Tomas Soucek who has been a revelation since signing from Slavia Prague last year.

The 25-year-old has chipped in with goals as well as powerful performances in the middle of the park — and he's a real threat in the air from set-pieces.

Manager David Moyes is delighted with the Czech Republic international.

He said: "He's a manager's dream. You have got somebody who wants to play.

"He is really humble about being here and working here. He is a great boy to have, and he's been very good for us."

Moyes is also full of praise for recent arrival Jesse Lingard who has made an instant impact on loan from Man United.

The Scot added: "Players want to play. They want to show what they can do. Jesse has done great for us and has contributed quickly.

"It wasn't long ago Jesse was an England international so I knew if we could get that level of player, it would improve us."

Jimmy's right in the pink for night time Test

TICKLED PINK:
Anderson can't wait to get his hands on the swinging ball

CRICKET By ANDY MILLOM

JIMMY Anderson says he can't wait to get his hands on the pink ball in India.

The third Test of England's series in the sub-continent kicks off this morning and it's a day-night match.

That means using a pink ball that usually offers plenty of swing and help to the bowlers. It's good news for armchair cricket fans too. Instead of setting the alarm for 4am starts, the action kicks off at a much more civilised 9am.

Anderson was rested from India's big second Test success and is raring to go again.

He said: "For us old guys who don't have the chance to play white-ball cricket any more it's a chance to play under lights again."

Struggling

"I just feel it's something a little bit different — it's quite special playing cricket under lights."

Many pundits think the floodlights make the ball move around a lot more.

That theory seems to be backed up by batsmen struggling once it gets dark.

But Anderson thinks that may not be the case.

He added: "There is not a difference in how the ball behaves as such."

"The difficulty will be adjusting the eyes to different lights. Twilight, the guys have said has been a bit tricky. We've found that in all the evening Tests we have played, whether in England, Australia or New Zealand.

ANDERSON ALL READY TO FIRE

"It does take that bit of time to get used to as the light fades and the floodlights take over from the natural light."

"I saw the pitch over the last couple of days and it's got a lot of grass on it but I can see a lot of red soil underneath which says to me it could well spin if they take a bit of grass off before the start.

"All the seam bowlers want really is a bit of carry, which we haven't really had throughout the series. We're keeping our fingers crossed there's a bit more in it for the seamers."

Anderson admits he finds it tough sitting out games under England's rotation theory.

None of the bowlers have had a consistent run in the side with plenty of chopping and changing all over the team.

But the Lancashire seamer can understand why with so much cricket to play over the next year or so — finishing with an Ashes series down under next winter that he wants to be part of.

Anderson said: "The idea was if I missed that one, that would give me the best chance of being fit and firing for the pink-ball Test."

"So that's where I am at, at the minute — I am feeling good and fresh and ready to go again if called upon."

Injuries

"It's hopefully going to keep me going for longer, and Stuart Broad has said the same too."

"I've seen the last couple of years — 2019, when I missed the Ashes, and the start of 2020, when I got an injury in South Africa — when the workload goes up, and it's the same for all bowlers not just me, those injuries do happen."

"We've got 17 Test matches this year and the best way of getting your best players firing for as many of those as possible is to take little rests every now and then."

"It's just a case of trying to make sure you're not wearing someone out until they completely break in half."

FIT AND FRESH:
Stuart Broad

50 CAPS:
Elliott Daly

ELLIOT BRINGS UP HALF CENTURY

SIX NATIONS RUGBY

ELLIOT Daly is desperate to mark his 50th England cap with a victory against Wales in Cardiff.

Eddie Jones' side has struggled to find their best form in the tournament so far. They were stunned at home by Scotland and were given more trouble than usual by the Italians.

The England full-back has come in for some stick with critics saying the side is too passive and lacks leaders on the pitch. That's something Daly doesn't agree with.

He said to the press: "I think you guys only think Owen Farrell and Eddie do the talking. We have a lot of conversations and meetings and after the Scotland game one of our things was getting our hands on the ball more."

"The way we attacked in the Italy game is closer to where we want to be."

"We made an effort to have more of an attacking mindset and take people on."

"It wasn't perfect and we understand we're not the finished article but we definitely feel we're in a better place than after the Scotland game."

Daly admits he is a little surprised to be bringing up his half-century of caps.

He added: "It's something I didn't think I would get to when I was starting out."

"I don't think it'll sink in until after the tournament but I want to go out there every time to do my family and my fiancée proud."

"Hopefully when the time arises I can reflect on it and realise what an achievement it is."

Wales hooker Ken Jones is looking forward to England's Cardiff visit.

COACH: Eddie Jones

He has come back from injury to play a full part in Wales' two Six Nations matches.

He admits that it's been a tough return. Jones said: "I would like to have had a couple more games as it has been a bit of a shock to the system, but it was not to be."

And he also admits that Wales are at a disadvantage without their vocal fans.

Jones added: "A crowd gives you a lift and an energy you can feed off."

"You have to find your own motivation, but the two games have been as physical as they were a year ago, exactly how Test rugby should be."

BATTLE FOR DE GEA

PSG, Juventus and Bayern want David

THREE of the world's biggest clubs want to buy David De Gea.

Reports in Spain suggest Juventus, Bayern Munich AND Paris St Germain are in the hunt.

There is also speculation in Italy that AC Milan want the Spaniard if their goalie Gigi Donnarumma leaves the San Siro. De Gea has two years left to run on his contract and has been linked with Real Madrid in the past couple of summers.

But it appears that the likes of Juventus, Bayern and PSG are serious about making a move.

And Manchester United could be ready to cash in on the 30-year-old with Dean Henderson waiting in the wings.

Many pundits think he should be the No1 at Old Trafford anyway so Ole Gunnar Solskjaer could let De Gea go in the summer.

There are rumours around United that Henderson will walk away if he doesn't get more first-team football soon. The club knows they can't keep both men happy.

Given that he is seven years younger, United will want to keep Henderson.

Solskjaer admits he has a call to make about his No1. He said: "Dean is in with a shout."

"He is maturing all the time but I have a very, very good goalkeeper in David De Gea."
